Only in Tehran, according to the police, 29 people have been arrested. Some of them are: Vida Movahed, Narges Hosseini, Aazam Jangroy, Shaprak Shajarzadeh, Maryam Shariatmadari, Hmrza Sadeghi and Bahareh Hedayat. We call for you help once more and we will demand that, with the intensification and expansion of actions and protests against the islamic republican of Iran, and the further pressure on it, given these catastrophic situations, save these honorable and hard working people from imprisonment, torture and execution and let them be with their distressed family on the nearing occasion of the New Year (Nowruz). An attempt to send an independent Iranian delegation to investigate the situation of the prisoners could be an effective measure in this regard.

We applaud your efforts and look forward to hear the news of your actions

Long live international solidarity!

Im regard
