Another Yankee summit

Without the presence of these countries, the licensed thugs who do attend the event will be able to exhibit their fruitful oratory without anyone bothering that "scrambled and brutal north", mention the smell of sulfur or end up sending Mr. President to hell.

At the beginning of June, the IX Summit of the Americas will be held in Los Angeles, which Cuba, Venezuela and Nicaragua will not attend because the US president and his government have decided to do so in contravention of all reason and right. If last year the United States organized a summit for American democracy from which it excluded, in addition to the aforementioned countries, Bolivia, Haiti, El Salvador, Guatemala and Honduras, this time the veto has focused on the American "axis of evil" that, as is known, takes advantage of these summits to make uproars of very bad taste calling trade pillage, to cooperation blackmail, and to the free market plunder and plunder.

Without the presence of these countries, the licensed thugs who do attend the event will be able to exhibit their fruitful oratory without anyone bothering that "scrambled and brutal north", mention the smell of sulfur or end up sending Mr. President to hell.

It is a summit designed by the empire that can only be attended by those American colonies that have lost memory and shame, or enclaves with the rank of country servile and ambitious enough to continue bending their necks and be grateful. Nor will the Spanish monarchy miss the appointment with the American colonies, although there is no longer anyone present to send silence.
