چو کشور نباشد تن من مباد
بدین بوم و بر زنده یک تن مباد
همه سر به سر تن به کشتن دهیم
از آن به که کشور به دشمن دهیم

Only the circumspect silence that the death of a human being deserves

In addition, I bring my thoughts closer to the millions of people of those sister nations who suffered and suffer the terrible economic hardships, due to the pillage and blatant theft of their patrimony by the Anglo-Saxon powers. And that has allowed this woman and her family – and without ever working – to be among the richest in the world.

I WILL NEVER FORGET YOU!

May you rest in peace

In the face of the death of the Queen of England and in the face of the pain transmitted by the media overwhelmingly; and for consistency with my deep humanist conviction and respect for life; Today more than ever, I want to pay an emotional and heartfelt tribute to the Argentine compatriots of the cruiser General Belgrano, cowardly murdered in 1982 by this country - under the highest authority of the now deceased - who celebrated without shame or remorse, and before the press around the world, such a war crime.

Also to the heroes fallen in the Falklands War, as well as the wounded, the prisoners and their families, who fought simply to recover what was stolen, before the most powerful pirate machinery of all centuries.

To those killed and wounded in 1955 - all civilians - in the bombing of Plaza de Mayo, with ammunition and strategic assistance from the United Kingdom.

To those shot, repressed and persecuted since the coup d'état of the Liberating Revolution in 1955 in Argentina, organized and assisted by London and Washington.

To the thousands and thousands of tortured, disappeared and killed by the coups d'état of Videla and Pinochet, in which Britain played a central role in favor of the genocidal military.

My tribute also to all Latin American countries, whose citizens of several generations, suffer and suffered, in these seven decades of the reign of Isabel, the terrible inhuman, warlike and destructive power of the British Empire through coups d'état, economic crises, attacks and permanent provocations.

In addition, I bring my thoughts closer to the millions of people of those sister nations who suffered and suffer the terrible economic hardships, due to the pillage and blatant theft of their patrimony by the Anglo-Saxon powers. And that has allowed this woman and her family – and without ever working – to be among the richest in the world.

And in order not to extend myself further, although with a painful and never resigned rebellion, I summarize in a single tear so many peoples of the world, devastated by the cruel British weapons and by their economic dictatorships over the centuries, with that criminal, savage and hypocritical attitude that they call "phlegm" when in reality they have the title of being the ones who "industrialized" slavery.

Today, the press of the system has its minute glory and with morbidity and demagoguery mourns its dead of blue blood, and floods everything with opportunistic laments in the midst of a scandalous exercise of obsequence and overacting.

But at the same time, that same hypocritical press has the shamelessness of not mentioning one of the millions of victims throughout these 69 years of reign.

Therefore, I want to bow to the painful memory of each of them and tell them with my heart in my hand...

I WILL NEVER FORGET YOU!

May you rest in peace
