Warm welcome to the homepage of the international cultural festival on 16th October in Berlin!

The international cultural festival on 16th of October in Berlin is an initiative of cooperation of international organisations, and immigrants organisations as well, existing in Germany. It corresponds to a growing need, of going beyond the borders of one's country to deal with situations together with others, to fight together with them, to exchange experiences with them, to bundle together our different forces, against those prevailing on us, into an alliance – and last but not least together to take care of the culture and the festival.

The international cultural festival is therefore a highlight to everyone

- Who is concerned about international cooperation
- Who wish to live in a world free from exploitation and free from oppression
- Who want to make use of the experiences acquired, up to now, in the stabling of socialism.

The 21 organisations, mentioned in the margin, from Germany and from abroad, are inviting of the cultural festival. Other organisations, groups of initiatives and parties are welcome to contributing their cooperation.

Long live the international solidarity!
