Suicide bombers attack intelligence compound in Kandahar

March 12, 2014

A group of suicide bombers attacked the Kandahar provincial intelligence – National Directorate of Security (NDS) compound on Wednesday morning.

According to local government officials, the suicide bombers were looking to enter the intelligence compound in Kandahar city, but the bombers were recognized and shot dead by Afghan security forces.

The first suicide bomber was shot dead on the spot while the second militant started clashes with the Afghan security forces, local officials said.

In the meantime, provincial government media office confirmed in a statement that two suicide bomber were shot dead by security forces.

There are no reports regarding any casualties of the Afghan security forces following the clashes.

In the meantime, reports suggest that the third suicide bomber is still exchanging fire with the Afghan security forces.

No group has so far claimed responsibility behind the incident.
