Explosion in Ghazni province leaves 9 dead or injured

March 19, 2014

At least two people were killed and seven others were injured following an explosion in eastern Ghazni province of Afghanistan on Wednesday.

According to local government officials, the incident took place in the capital city of Ghazni province on Wednesday afternoon.

Provincial governor spokesman, Shafiq Nang Sapai, the explosion took place around 12 pm local time after explosives planted in a bicycle went off.

Mr. Sapai further added that two people were killed and seven others were injured following the explosion.

He said the main target of the explosion was head of the Andar district criminal investigation department (CID) chief.

In the meantime, deputy provincial governor Mohammad Ali Ahmadi said a member of the criminal investigation department (CID) was killed along with another individual following explosion.

Mr. Ahmadi said all those injured in the explosion are ordinary civilians.

No group including the Taliban militants has so far claimed responsibility behind the explosion.
