Ukraine far-right nationalists attack parliament building

3/27/2014

Hundreds of Ukrainian far-right nationalists have attacked the parliament building in Kiev, demanding the interior minister to resign after one of their leaders was killed.

On Thursday evening, members of the so-called Right Sector smashed windows of the building and demanded the resignation of Interior Minister Arsen Avakov for failing to restore stability in the crisis-hit country.

The protesters said Avakov was responsible for the death of one of their leaders, Aleksandr Muzychko, who was shot dead in a police raid in the western city of Rivne on Monday.

Muzychko was known for his radicalism, attacks on local officials in Kiev and refusing to give up arms after the new authorities came to power.

The Ukraine crisis began last November, after the country's then president, Viktor Yanukovich, refrained from signing a deal with the European Union in favor of closer ties with neighboring Russia.

The refusal triggered months of unrest that led to the ouster of Yanukovich on February 23. He then travelled to Russia, where he was given sanctuary.
