A policeman has killed five of his fellow policemen in Oruzgan province of Afghanistan.

Dost Mohammad Nayab, spokesman for the provincial police headquarters of Oruzgan says the tragic incident took place in Dehrawad district last night.

He said three policemen were killed and five others wounded initially but two of them died of their wounds on the way to the hospital

The policeman who sprayed bullets on his fellow policemen has escaped but efforts have been made for his arrest, according to Dost Mohammad Nayab.

The motive behind the incident remains unclear but Taliban insider attackers have in the past targeted Afghan National Security Forces as well as foreign troops in Afghanistan.
