Mahaz-e-Fedaiyan terror group commander arrested in Kabul

January 27, 2015

A commander of the Mahaz-e-Fedaiyan terrorist group was arrested following an operation by the Afghan intelligence operatives in Kabul city.

The National Directorate of Security (NDS) said the detained militant commander was identified as Nooruallah who was also well known as Farooqi and is a resident of Shamshatoo camp in Peshawar city.

A statement by NDS said Farooqi was arrested along with another militant following an operation in 12th police district of Kabul city.

The statement further added that the militants were deployed by Mahaz-e-Fedaiyan leader Haji Najeebullah to carry out terrorist attack in the city.

According to NDS the Afghan intelligence operatives also confiscated two pistols, two hand grenades and a gun silencer from the detained militants.

Mahaz-e-Fedaiyan terrorist group was involved in attack which led to the assassination of former Logar governor Arsalan Jamal.

Jamal was killed on the first day of Eid in mid October 2013 following an explosion in Pul-e-Alam district while he was delivering a speech to mark the Muslim holiday of Eid al-Adha.

The group following a statement said that the explosives were planted under the stage inside the mosque where governor Jamal was delivering speech.
