Insurgents blown up Girls School, Clinic in Kunar

February 7, 2015

Insurgents have blown up a Girls School and a clinic in eastern Kunar province.

Abdul Habib Sayedkhil, Police Chief of eastern Kunar province says that the incidents took place in Naray District last night.

He said unidentified insurgents blown up a Girls School in Saw area and a Clinic at Shir Gul area of Naray District last night.

He added that the compound of the Girls School is ruined by about 80%, adding that Holy Quran and other books also burned in the fire caused by the explosions.

This is 2nd such like incident taking place in eastern Afghanistan in less than 10 days.

On January 28 unidentified gunmen attacked two schools in Haska Mina District of eastern Nangarhar province.

One school was a Girls School and another was Boys School.

Following the incident Mohammad Asif Shinwarai, spokesman for the Education Department of Nangarhar province said that insurgents 1st went to the Girls School, tied up watchmen and blown up school with bombs.

Over 1, 000 kids were studying in the school, he said.

He added that militants then went to a Boys School in the nearby area and broken windows of the school.

No group has so far accepted responsibility for the attacks.
