Three Policemen Killed in Taliban Attack in Badakhshan

10 March 2015

Three policemen and an insurgent were killed in a Taliban attack on a police outpost in northeastern Badakhshan province on Monday night, local officials said.

Three other policemen were injured in the attack.

The attack took place in Warduj district of the province after a number of Taliban insurgents attacked a police outpost and started clashing, in which three policemen and a Taliban insurgent were killed and three other policemen were injured, District Governor of Wardju, Dawlat Mohamad Khawar said.

The Taliban insurgents have escaped with the policemen's, he said.

However, so far the Taliban insurgents have not yet commented about the attack.
