Kandahar, Kunduz and Laghman Record Blasts

30 April 2015

A suicide bomber driving a car detonated his explosives Thursday at a police check point in Trank area, Daman district, Kandahar province, officials said.

According to Kandahar officials, the suicide bomber detonated explosives after being stopped by police at a checkpoint. Two people were wounded in the blast.

Elsewhere in a separate blast in Kunduz province at least four civilians were wounded, police said.

According to Kunduz police, explosives were placed on a bicycle and detonated at about 10:30 am local time Thursday when a police vehicle was passing by.

Four civilians were wounded in the blast, police said.

No insurgent group has yet claimed responsibility for the blast. In a separate blast in Laghman province a Taliban local commander was killed and two others wounded on Wednesday night in Alingar district while trying to plant several roadside mines in the Shorab area.

According to local officials, the Taliban local commander was named Jamshid and he was a well-known mine-maker among the Taliban.
