Suicide attack in Kabul city leaves 3 dead, 18 others wounded

May 10, 2015

A relatively heavy explosion rocked capital Kabul after a suicide bomber targeted the vehicle of the Afghan Attorney General Office (AGO).

The blast took place in the vicinity of Dar-ul-Aman road – the same place where a suicide bomber targeted the AGO staff vehicle last week.

According to Kabul Police Department officials, at least three people were killed and 18 others were injured following the incident.

The officials further added that a woman was among those killed after a suicide bomber detonated explosives packed in his body near the vehicle of the AGO employees.

No group including the Taliban militants has so far claimed responsibility behind today's incident so far.

This comes as at least one person was killed and thirteen others were injured after a suicide bomber targeted the AGO staff/employees vehicle in the same area last Monday.
