Four policemen martyred in insurgent attacks in Paktika

May 19, 2015

Four policemen embraced martyrdom after insurgents attack two security check posts in Paktika province last night.

One of the two attacks were carried out in Janikhil District and another in the provincial capital Sharana.

Deputy governor of Paktika province told Khaama Press that a group of Taliban insurgents attacked the security check post of Hastai area of Janikhil District last night in which four policemen embraced martyrdom and two others sustained injuries.

He said two Taliban militants were also killed in the exchange of fire with security forces whose dead bodies were left on the ground. He added that five other Taliban militants were wounded in the gun battle.

Alos, a group of Taliban insurgents attacked a security check post in Salai area of the provincial capital in which three policemen slightly injured.

Hazrat, a police officer in the area told Khaama Press that a militant was also killed in this clash.

Taliban have not accepted responsibly for the attack in the provincial capital but they have claimed responsibility for the attack in Janikhil District in which four policemen lost lives.
