Four policemen martyred in militant ambush in Farah

May 24, 2015

Four policemen have embraced martyrdom in a militant ambush in western Farah province.

Fazal Mohammad Samadyar, police chief of Farah province said that the ambush was established on the road leading from the provincial capital to Bala Boluk District late yesterday.

He said four policemen lost lives in the attack and another wounded who is receiving medical treatment at the time.

Security forces arrived at the scene following the attack and arrested a suspect with a radio.

No group has yet claimed responsibility for the attack but Taliban militants are active in parts of Bala Boluk District.
