Three Hazaras gunned down in Pakistan's Baluchistan

May 26, 2015

Three members of the Hazara Shia community have been gunned down by unidentified gunmen in Pakistan's Baluchistan province.

One incident took place in Iqbal Road area where unknown gunmen killed Anwar Ali Hazara in a tea shop and the second incident took place in front Saleem Medical in which two Hazaras lost lives.

Following the incidents Hazara community staged protest in front of the office of Inspector General of Quetta police and Quetta Press Club.

Panic was spread and most of the markets and shops were shut in Quetta city following the incidents and protest.

No group has immediately claimed responsibility for the attacks but this is the second attack on Shias in Pakistan in about two weeks and the responsibility of the first attack was claimed by Islamic State's Khorasan province and TTP's splinter group of Jundullah.

43 people from Ismaili Shia community were killed after unidentified gunmen attacked a bus they were traveling in Karachi on May 13.
