Donetsk republic reveals new evidence of Kiev crimes in Donbass

5/30/2015

The self-proclaimed Donetsk republic's military intelligence has presented new reports of Ukraine's law enforcement agencies on the crimes committed by Kiev forces in Donbass.

The documents of the Ukrainian police department in the Donetsk region obtained by the Donetsk news agency mention the killing of a local citizen from the Amvrosievsky district.

In late August 2014, armed people wearing camouflage with Ukrainian insignia broke into his private house and shot him dead. His wife was critically wounded, according to the leaked report.

The Interior Ministry said Kiev troops had been involved in a series of robberies, mostly at the roadblocks. The law enforcement agencies also reported about the shootouts between the troops.
