Policeman in Farah kills 3 colleagues

Jun 25, 2015

After killing his three colleagues in the Balablok district of western Farah province, a policeman took all the weapons with him and joined Taliban's ranks, provincial police spokesman said on Thursday.

Iqbal Bahir told Pajhwok Afghan News the tragic incident occurred at a check post manned by Afghan National Police (ANP) in Farahrud locality of the district on Wednesday night.

Policeman Noor Agha gunned down his colleagues when they were sleeping in the night, he said, adding that commander of the security check post Mohammad Dawood and two other policemen were among the dead.

Soon after the incident, Taliban claimed credit that the attack was carried out by their sympathizer.
