More than 100 Afghans arrested in Pakistan's Balochistan

10/26/2015

Security agencies have detained more than 100 Afghans in a raid in Balochistan province of Pakistan.

Officials say the group of 108 Afghan nationals had illegally entered Pakistan in Nokkudin area of Chaghi District.

Pakistan toughened its crackdown on Afghan refugees after a deadly attack on an air force base in Badhber area of Peshawar in September.

The Tehreek-e-Taliban Pakistan (TTP)-claimed attack left 29 people killed, most of them military and air force personnel, and as many wounded.

There are roughly 1,000,000 Afghan refugees who are residing illegally in Pakistan but they might be given legal status in near future.

The country is also housing around 1,600,000 registered Afghan refugees who are issued proper documentation to legalize their stay until the end of this year after which their refugee cards might be renewed.
