Turkish nationals among 5 killed or wounded in Kabul shooting

March 5, 2016

At least five people including Turkish nationals have been killed or wounded in an attack by gunmen in capital Kabul earlier tonight.

The security officials in Kabul police department confirmed the incident and said a Turkish national was killed along with an Afghan and three others were wounded.

The officials, citing preliminary police reports, further added that the wounded people were all Turkish citizens.

Meanwhile, eyewitnesses in the area said two Turkish nationals and an Afghan citizen were shot dead and two Turkish citizens were wounded.

The main motive behind the incident has not been ascertained so far which has reportedly taken place inside a Turkish market in Haji Yaqoob square of the city.
