Rocket lands in Makroryan area of Kabul

July 24, 2016

A relatively heavy explosion was heard in Kabul city causing panic among the city residents a day after a deadly attack left at least 80 dead.

The security officials confirmed that a rocket landed in Makroryn area in the 9th police district of the city.

Sediq Sediqi, spokesman for the Ministry of Interior, confirmed that the rocket landed in 3rd Makrorya but did not inflict any casualties.

Earlier reports emerged from the incident site suggesting at least 5 people were wounded after a rocket landed in a kindergarten.

No group has so far claimed responsibility behind the incident.

This comes as at least 80 people were killed and 231 others were wounded in a suicide attack in Deh Mazang area of the city on Saturday afternoon.

The incident took place after a suicide bomber detonated his explosives among the thousands of protesters who had gathered in the area.

The demonstration on Saturday was organized two months after the Enlightening Movement organized a similar rally to protest against the government over the implementation of a power project through Salang which was initially to be implemented through Bamyan and Maidan Wardak provinces.

The Islamic State of Iraq and Syria (ISIS) terrorist group claimed responsibility behind the incident.
