Seven guards of Afghan VP Dostum sentenced to imprisonment over abuse case

11/4/2017

Afghan First VP Abdul Rashid Dostum (L), Ahmad Ishchi (R).

Seven guards of Afghanistan's First Vice President Abdul Rashid Dostum have been indicted and sentenced to five years each in prison over abusing the politician's rival last year.

They were sentenced to imprisonment in absentia by a primary court in Police District 2 of Kabul three days ago, sources told 1TV.

Ahmad Ishchi, who made accusations that Dostum ordered his men to rape and torture him, however, said that he is not satisfied with the progress over the case.

"Dostum, who is the main criminal, should be punished," the 63-year-old said.

Dostum, who denies the allegations, has been in Turkey since May.

His aides have previously said that the case against him is a political case.
