An Afghan government peace negotiator was killed in a suicide attack in the Watapur district of eastern Kunar province on Friday, officials said.

Province council head Maulvi Mohammad Hashim Munib, who was on his way home in the district centre, was killed in bombing, the provincial police chief said.

Brig. Gen. Ewaz Mohammad Nazari told Pajhwok Afghan News the bomber struck soon after Friday prayers. He had no further details of the attack.

A doctor at Kunar Civil Hospital, Mohammad Farid, said that one of the two wounded people brought to the hospital had succumbed to his injuries.

Naseer, a resident of the area, said Munib was killed along with one of his sons.

On September 20, High Peace Council chairman Prof. Burhanuddin Rabbani was assassinated in a suicide attack on his residence in Kabul.
