4 rebel commanders among 6 killed in Ghazni

5/16/2012

Four Taliban commanders were among six militants killed during a clash in the southern province of Ghazni, officials said on Wednesday.

The insurgents were killed and weapons and ammunitions seized from them during an operation by the Afghan security personnel and foreign troops in Haji Qala, Bargam and some other areas of Andar district

A commander of the 203rd Thunder Military Corps, Gen. Daud Shah Wafadar, told Pajhwok Afghan News that security personnel or civilians suffered no harm during the ongoing operation.

Four Taliban active against Afghan and the International Security Assistance Force (ISAF) personnel were killed this morning, said the Andar district chief, Sher Khan Yousufzai.

Separately, two militants were killed during a two-hour clash on in the Kansif area of the district late on Tuesday, he added.

A resident of the area, who wished anonymity, said that two guerrillas were killed in the clash that was still ongoing. "People can't come out of homes," he added.
