2 policemen beheaded by insurgents

9/14/2012

The Taliban beheaded two Public Order Police officials and abducted a third in the Baghlan-i-Markazi district of northern Baghlan province, officials said on Thursday.

The policemen were travelling from their headquarters to a checkpoint on Wednesday evening when the insurgents stopped their vehicle in the Aab Qul area, the deputy police chief said. Col. Syed Zamanuddin Hussaini told Pajhwok Afghan News the militants beheaded the policemen, beating and abducted their driver. However, they left the police vehicle at the scene. The victims' bodies were handed over to their families, he said.

A Taliban spokesman, Zabihullah Mujahid, claimed government troops attacked the fighters in Zamankhel and Aab Qul areas of the district.

Seven security personnel were killed and four others wounded in retaliatory fire from the Taliban, he said.
