Nov 29, 2012

Ten civilians were killed when a minibus hit a roadside bomb in Dihrawud district of central Uruzgan province on Thursday morning, an official said.

Dihrawud district Chief Amenullah Khaliqi told Pajhwok Afghan News that the attack happened at about 11:00am on Thursday between Gazak and Shoraab areas.

The injured victims were sent to Tirinkot city civil hospital, he added.

Uruzgan provincial council chief Ibrahim Akhonzada said the passengers were on their way to welcome a relative who had returned home from Saudi Arabia after performing his Haj.

So far no group had claimed responsibility for the morning attack where women and children perished, he added.
