5 dead, 8 wounded in motorcycle bomb blast Guard killed, 4 wounded

12/4/2012

A motorcycle bomb killed five persons including two Afghan National Army (ANA) troops and wounded eight more in Tarin Kot, capital of Uruzgan province, today's afternoon, police said Monday.

An explosive rigged motorcycle exploded near the office of National Directorate of Security (NDS) in the provincial capital at about 2:30 p.m. (local time) when an ANA vehicle was passing from the area, Farid Ahmad Aail, spokesman for Uruzgan police, told Afghan Islamic Press .

He said eight persons including two ANA soldiers, a woman, a man and a child were killed and eight civilians wounded in the explosion, adding investigations were launched into the incident. There was no immediate claim of responsibility.

Meanwhile, Taliban killed a guard and wounded four more after an attack on a logistic convoy in Dilaram district of Nimroz province yesterday, an official said Monday.

Taliban attacked a logistic convoy of foreign forces in the limits of Dilarm district yesterday, killing a security guard escorting the convoy and wounding four others, Khuda-e-Dad, governor of Dilaram district, told Afghan Islamic Press.
