NATO helicopter crash in Kandahar province of Afghanistan

March 16, 2013

According to reports another NATO-led coalition security forces helicopter has crashed in Daman district of southern Kandahar province on Saturday.

Provincial governor Jawid Faisal said the helicopter has reportedly crashed around 6am local time.

Mr. Faisal further added preliminary reports suggest at least two people were inside the helicopter when the incident took place and there are no reports regarding the fate of the two individuals.

He said the helicopter had crashed due to bad weather condition.

Daman is among the volatile districts in southern Kandahar province of Afghanistan however local authorities are ruling out militants involvement behind today's incident.

This comes as another NATO helicopter crashed in Daman district on Tuesday killing five coalition security forces on board.

Coalition security forces have not commented regarding the incident so far.
