Roadside bomb kills 2, wounds 3

3/19/2013

Two police including a senior officer were killed and three others sustained injuries as a roadside bomb struck police van in Shindand district of Herat province with Herat city as its capital 640 km west of Kabul on Tuesday, police said.

"A mine planted by militants on a road in Shindand district struck the vehicle of Nasir Ahmad the police chief of Herat-Farah highway today, killing him along with one of his bodyguards and injured three others," police chief of the western region Taryali Abdiak told Xinhua.

Those injured in the blast are also police personnel, he added. He did not furnish more details.

Taliban militants fighting the government have yet to make comment.
