Explosion kill NATO soldier in eastern Afghanistan

June 10, 2013

A NATO service member was killed following roadside bomb explosion in eastern Afghanistan on Monday.

NATO-led International Security Assistance Force (ISAF) following a statement announced, “One International Security Assistance Force service member died following an improvised explosive device attack in eastern Afghanistan today.”

The statement did not disclose further information regarding the exact location of the incident and nationality of the deceased soldier. Troops mainly from United States are based in eastern provinces of Afghanistan.

International Security Assistance Force (ISAF) generally does not disclose identities of the NATO soldiers killed in Afghanistan saying, “It is ISAF policy to defer casualty identification procedures to the relevant national authorities.”

At least 84 NATO service members including 63 US troops, 6 British troops and 15 soldiers from the other NATO member countries have been killed in Afghanistan since the beginning of 2012, according to icasualties which tracks coalition forces casualties in Afghanistan.
