6 Afghan police killed in a suspected insider attack in Helmand

June 13, 2013

According to local authorities in southern Helmand province of Afghanistan, at least six Afghan police officers were killed in a suspected insider attack.

The officials further added, the incident took place in Musa Qala district on Thursday.

Provincial governor spokesman Omar Zuwak confirming the report said at least two Afghan national police (ANP) officers and four Afghan local police (ALP) officers were killed following the incident.

Mr. Zuwak further added that the militants had taken a vehicle with them after killing the police officers.

Taliban group claimed responsibility behind the incident and said Taliban fighters killed eight Afghan police officers and seized their weapons along with a vehicle.

This comes as at least seven local police officers were killed following an insider attack in southern Helmand province of Afghanistan earlier this month.

Taliban group in April announced that several Taliban fighters have infiltrated inside the Afghan security forces and will carry out attacks during their summer offensive.
