Explosion kill Afghan security official in Baghlán province

July 1, 2013

District security chief for Burka was killed following a roadside improvised explosive device attack in northern Baghlán province of Afghanistan on Monday.

Atleast security guards of Burka district security chief were also killed following the explosion.

Provincial governor spokesman Abdul Bashir Basharat confirming the report said the incident took place around 11:30am in Nahrin district after the vehicle of Burka district chief struck with a roadside bomb.

Mr. Basharat further added that a security guard of Burka district chief was also injured following the incident.

No group including the Taliban militants has so far claimed responsibility behind the incident. Local officials blame Taliban group for the incident as Taliban fighters frequently use improvised explosive device as the weapon of their choice to target Afghan and coalition security forces and Afgahn government officials.
