7 children killed or injured in Farah explosion

July 28, 2013

^[1]According to local authorities in western Farah province of Afghanistan, at least seven people were killed or injured following an explosion in this province.

A spokesman for the provincial police department, Abdul Nasir Majroh said the incident took place around 7:30am local time in the first district of Farah city on Sunday.

Provincial government spokesman Abdul Rahman Zhwandai confirming the report said the victims of the incident were small children who were killed or injured after an unexploded ordnance went off in the area.

Mr. Zhwandai further added that the unexploded ordnance which was left from the civil war times went off while the kids were trying to take metal remains.

Abdul Jabar Shaqaiq, spokesman for the provincial public health department said that the health condition of one kid is critical.
