Rape, brutal murder of teenager boy spark protest in N. Afghanistan

August 2, 2013

Hundreds of local residents in northern Faryab province of Afghanistan on Thursday took to the streets to protest against the rape and murder of a 12-year-old teenager boy.

Around 300 protesters gathered near the provincial governor compound and national directorate of security and criticized the security forces for being reckless towards the incident, which took place close to the security check post.

The 12-year-old boy recognized as Zabiullah was raped and brutally murdered in the 6th district of Maimana city by unknown individuals.

The protesters urged that those involved behind the incident should be tried, and the security forces in the check post should also be questioned in this regard.

Deputy provincial Ulema council chief, Mawlavi Ghulam Nabi Ghafoori condemned the brutal murder of the teenager boy and said those involved behind the incident should be arrested immediately and should be punished.

Provincial governor spokesman Ahmad Jawid Bidar said the governor of Faryab province has instructed to form a commission comprised of security, attorney and discovery institutions to investigate from the security check post which was close to the area where the incident took place.

Mr. Jawid further added that the members of the security check post will be tried if it was found that they remained reckless or were involved in brutal murder and rape of the teenager boy.
