Provincial council candidate shot dead in Logar

September 28, 2013

According to local authorities in eastern Logar province of Afghanistan, unknown gunmen shot dead at least three people including two teachers and a potential provincial council candidate in this province.

Provincial governor spokesman, Din Mohammad Darwish confirming the report said the incident took place on Friday evening in Mohammad Agha district.

Mr. Darwish further added that district governor for Mohammad Agha was also injured following the incident, and the assailant militants managed to flee the area.

He said Afghan security forces have launched an investigation in this regard, and no one has been arrested in connection to the incident so far.

No group including the Taliban militants has so far claimed responsibility behind the incident.

Logar is among the volatile provinces in eastern Afghanistan. Militants from the Taliban group and other insurgent groups are actively operating in it's various and frequently carry out insurgency activities against the Afghan and coalition security forces and Afghan government officials.
