Explosion and gun battle reported near Ghazni governor compound

October 26, 2013

Explosion and gun battle has been reported in eastern Ghazni province of Afghanistan. The blast has reportedly taken place near the provincial government compound.

There are no reports regarding the casualties so far, and eye witnesses in the area are saying that gunshots are still heard from the site of explosion.

According to reports, Afghan interior minister, Omar Daudzai, Afghan Senate Chairman and other high level government officials were present in the compound when the incident took place.

No group including the Taliban militants has so far claimed responsibility behind the incident.
