NATO soldier and Afghan police officers die in separate attacks

November 3, 2013

A NATO service member and two Afghan police officers were shot dead by militants in separate attacks in eastern and southern Afghanistan on Sunday.

NATO-led International Security Assistance Force (ISAF) following a statement said, “An International Security Assistance Force service member died following a small arms fire attack by enemy forces in eastern Afghanistan Nov. 3.”

The statement did not disclose further information regarding the exact location of the incident and nationality of the deceased soldier.

International Security Assistance Force (ISAF) generally do not disclose identities of the NATO soldiers killed in Afghanistan saying, “It is ISAF policy to defer casualty identification procedures to the relevant national authorities.”

Meanwhile, an Afghan police officer was killed after a group of insurgents attacked a security check post in Dehrawood district of southern Uruzgan province, local officials said.

Spokesman for the provincial police department, Farid Ayel said at least four militants were also killed during the clashes and four others were wounded.

Provincial governor spokesman for southern Kandahar province said unknown gunmen shot dead a police officer in Kandahar city on Sunday.
