Taliban abduct four Afghan intelligence operatives in Ghazni

November 9, 2013

According to reports, Taliban militants have kidnapped four Afghan intelligence operatives in eastern Ghazni province of Afghanistan.

The intelligence operatives were reportedly kidnapped in Moqor district and the footage of the kidnapped operatives has been broadcasted by Taliban group.

Taliban militants have demanded prisoners swap for the release of their 4 militants to release the kidnapped intelligence operatives.

Local government officials have not confirmed the abduction of four intelligence operative by Taliban so far.

The intelligence operatives were reportedly kidnapped while they were on their way from southern Kandahar province to capital Kabul.

The Afghan intelligence department – national directorate of security (NDS) has not commented regarding the report and identities the alleged operatives who appear in the video.
