French president Hollande in affair with actress: Magazine claims

1/10/2014

A French magazine Closer, claims President Francois Hollande is having an affair with actress Julie Gayet and says it has photographs to back its story.

The weekly tabloid in its website said that its Friday print edition would feature seven pages of revelations and pictures of President Hollande and Gayet.

It also added that Hollande routinely drives through Paris on his scooter to spend the night with his 41-year-old mistress.

Closer wrote on the website, “Around New Year’s Day, a helmeted head of state joined the actress at her apartment, where he has got into the habit of spending the night.”

A blurred picture of the cover that appears to show Hollande was also posted by Closer in its website.

In the meantime, French president Francois Hollande condemned the coverage as an “attack on the right to privacy” and said he was considering legal action against Closer.

Mr. Hollande said he is considering suing a magazine after it claimed he was having an affair with an actress.

Hollande told AFP the report was an “attack on the right to privacy”.

Gayet, who appeared in one of Hollande’s 2012 election commercials, is an established television and cinema actress who has appeared in more than 50 films.

She had also filed a complaint in March over rumors of the affair which she said were a breach of privacy.
