3 policemen killed, 2 others injured in Jawzjan blast

May 13, 2014

According to local authorities in northern Jawzjan province of Afghanistan, at least three policemen were killed following an improvised explosive device (IED) explosion.

Provincial police spokesman, Abdul Manan Raufi confirming the report said the incident took place on Monday evening.

Mr. Raufi further added that two policemen were also injured following the explosion.

No group has so far claimed responsibility behind the incident.

The Taliban militants frequently use improvised explosive device (IED) as the weapon of their choice to target Afghan and coalition security forces.

Jawzjan is among the relatively peaceful provinces in northern Afghanistan; however the anti-government armed militants have recently increased to their insurgency activities in this province.
