Afghan police kills his commander, 4 family members in Kandahar

May 16, 2014

According to reports, an Afghan policeman has killed his four family members along with his commander in southern Kandahar province of Afghanistan.

The incident took place in Arghandab district of Kandahar province late Thursday, a local security official said.

The official further added that preliminary reports suggest the police officer had some arguments with his family and therefore opened fire on his family members.

He said at least four others belonging to the family of the assailant police officer were also injured following the attack.

The police officer also opened fire on his commander while he was investigating the incident, the security official said, adding that the police assailant policeman was killed by the other policemen.

Arghandab district chief confirmed that he is aware of incident however he did not disclose further information.
