Suicide bomber attack government building in Nangarhar

May 21, 2014

A suicide bomber attacked a government compound in eastern Nangarhar province of Afghanistan on Wednesday.

Local officials said at least two policemen were killed and nine others were injured following the suicide attack.

Provincial governor spokesman, Ahmad Zia Abdulzai confirmed that the suicide attack was carried out inside the district government building around 11:00 am local time.

Mr. Abdulzai further added that the Hesarak district chief was also among nine people injured following the attack.

Taliban militants group claimed responsibility behind the attack and said at least seven people including district police chief were killed.
