Suicide attack leaves 3 Turkish citizens dead in Nangarhar

June 2, 2014

A suicide attack rocked eastern Nangarhar province of Afghanistan on Monday morning.

According to reports, the target of the suicide bomber was a group of Turkish engineers in Behsud district.

Local officials confirmed that three Turkish engineers were killed and another one was injured following the attack.

Provincial police spokesman, Ahmad Zia Abdulzai, said the suicide bomber riding a motorcycle detonated his explosives near the vehicle of the Turkish engineers in Benga area of Behsud district.

Abdulzai further added that the Turkish engineers were working inside a military compound which belongs to the Afghan national security forces.

No group including the Taliban militants has so far claimed responsibility behind the incident.
