Suicide bombers attack NATO vehicle parking plot in Torkham

June 19, 2014

A group of militants attacked the NATO vehicle parking lot in Torkham early Thursday morning, local officials said.

A spokesman for the border police forces Edris Momand said the attack was carried out around 4:30 am local time.

Momand further added that the attack was carried out by three suicide bombers who were killed following clashes with the Afghan security forces.

In the meantime, another official said a civilian was killed during the clashes and nearly ten vehicles were torched by the militants.

The Taliban militants group claimed responsibility behind the attack and said several Afghan forces were killed or injured during the clashes.

Taliban spokesman, Zabiullah Mujahid, said several supply vehicles were also torched by the Taliban fighters.

However, local officials denied the claims by Taliban group regarding the casualties of the Afghan security forces.
