Explosion kills three NATO soldiers in southern Afghanistan

June 21, 2014

At least three NATO soldiers were killed following an explosion in southern Afghanistan on Friday.

NATO-led International Security Assistance Force (ISAF), following a statement, confirmed that three ISAF service members died following an improvised explosive device attack in southern Afghanistan.

The statement did not disclose further information regarding the exact location of the incident and nationalities of the deceased soldiers.

International Security Assistance Force (ISAF) generally do not disclose identities of the NATO soldiers killed in Afghanistan, saying, "It is ISAF policy to defer casualty identification procedures to the relevant national authorities."

The alliance in its statement also added that one ISAF K-9 was also killed following the roadside bombing.

At least 41 NATO soldiers including 30 US troops, 6 British troops and 5 soldiers from the other countries contributing troops to ISAF mission, have been killed following various incidents in Afghanistan since the beginning of the year.
