Huge fire sweeps through wood market in capital Kabul

June 29, 2014

A huge fire swept through a wood market in capital Kabul on Sunday.

The incident took place in Shodai Saliheen, in the 8th district of Kabul city with thick black fume covering the area.

The incident has reportedly incurred huge financial loss and fire fighting teams have been deployed in the area to extinguish the fire.

This comes as several shops were partially damaged and after a fire swept through a shop and a warehouse in one of the Kabul markets earlier in January this year.

The incident took place in Qwai Markaz area of Kabul city which incurred a financial loss of 14 millions AFS.
