Two NATO soldiers die in militants attack in southern Afghanistan

July 24, 2014

Two service members of the NATO-led International Security Assistance Force (ISAF) died following militants attack in southern Afghanistan on Thursday.

The NATO-led International Security Assistance Force (ISAF), following a statement, said, Two International Security Assistance Force service members died as a result of an enemy forces attack in southern Afghanistan today.”

The statement did not disclose further information regarding the exact location of the incident and nationality of the deceased soldier.

International Security Assistance Force (ISAF) generally do not disclose identities of the NATO soldiers killed in Afghanistan, saying, “It is ISAF policy to defer casualty identification procedures to the relevant national authorities.”

At least 51 NATO service members including 34 US troops, 6 British troops and 11 soldiers from the countries which contribute troops to ISAF mission in Afghanistan, have been killed since the beginning of the year.
