Explosion in capital Kabul leaves 4 Afghan soldiers martyred

August 4, 2014

At least four National Army (ANA) soldiers were martyred following an explosion in capital Kabul early Monday.

Defense ministry spokesman, Gen. Zahir Azimi, said the incident took place in Mosahi district, southern part of capital Kabul.

Gen. Azimi further added that the soldiers were patrolling in the area when the incident took place, leaving four soldiers martyred and four others injured.

He said the incident took place around 7:30 am local time.

No group including the Taliban militants has so far claimed responsibility behind the incident.

In the meantime, Azimi, said at least two other Afghan soldiers were martyred following roadside bomb blast in the past 24 hours.

Azimi did not disclose further information regarding the exact locations where the two Afghan soldiers were killed.
