5 Afghan soldiers martyred following IED and militant attacks

September 6, 2014

At least five Afghan National Army (ANA) soldiers were martyred following Improvised Explosive Device (IED) and militants attacks, defense officials said Saturday.

Gen. Zahir Azimi, spokesman for the Ministry of Defense said the Afghan army soldiers were martyred in the past 24 hours.

He did not disclose further information regarding the exact locations where the ANA service members were martyred.

In the meantime, Gen. Azimi said at least 18 militants were killed and several others were injured following military operations during the past 48 hours.

Gen. Azimi further added the militants were killed or injured during operations in six different provinces.

Afghan National Army (ANA) soldiers also discovered and neutralized 72 rounds of Improvised Explosive Device (IED) during the same operations, Gen. Azimi said.

The anti-government armed militant groups including the Taliban militants has not commented regarding the reports so far.
