3 Afghan soldiers martyred following blast in the past 24 hours

September 18, 2014

At least Afghan national army (ANA) soldiers were martyred following roadside bomb explosion in the past 24 hours.

Defense ministry spokesman, Gen. Zahir Azimi confirmed that three Afghan soldiers were martyred in improvised explosive device (IED) attack.

He did not disclose further information regarding the exact location where the three Afghan soldiers were martyred.

The anti-government armed militant groups have not commented regarding the incident so far.

Taliban militants and other insurgent groups frequently use improvised explosive device (IED) as the weapon of their choice to target Afghan and coalition forces.

Improvised explosive devices (IEDs) are also major contributor to civilian casualties in Afghanistan.

At least two civilians were killed and three others including women and children were injured following an improvised explosive device (EID) explosion in Mosa Qala district on Tuesday.
